

Diagram illustrating the dimensions and material flow of a 3D printer. The dimensions shown are 180x150 (width) and 100 (height). The material flow is indicated by arrows, showing the path from the filament spool to the extruder and then to the nozzle.

